What to do

- 1 Start with a decorative wire bowl, with a pedestal base or high walls. At a hardware store or do-it-yourself home center, select a spool of 14-gauge cable wire (regularly used for appliance wiring) that's covered in silvery-gray vinyl—or a color of your choice.
- 2 Using wire cutters, clip a 15"-strand of cable wire for each spoke of the bowl. Curl each strand as follows, using needle nose pliers for tight curls, and otherwise making loose curls with your fingers. Begin at one end with a tight curl, then bend the next 4" into an S-curve. Wrap the wire at the bottom of this S curve once around the rim of the bowl and once around a spoke of the wire bowl, ending on the outside of the bowl. Use the remainder of the strand to make another, larger S curve, ending with a tight curl.
- 3 Hang a bulldog clip (from the office supply store) from the curl at the bottom of each curly cable wire. Gather photos and divide into stacks so each showcase a different family member or friend. Clip each stack onto the bowl. Add a round key tag to sport each person's name.
- 5 Fill wire bowl with a variety of fresh fruits or a beautiful house plant.
